bTALK

Bluetooth Headset

Calling handsfree and wireless, simply and comfortably

The mobile phone is a fashion statement! But wouldn't it be nice when you were able to wirelessly and comfortably have a conversation while having your hands free to do other stuff? It is all possible with the Eminent bTalk Bluetooth® Headset. A comfortable lightweight headset - with only 10 grams including the battery the lightest on the market today - suited for every Bluetooth® capable mobile phone. The bTalk allows you to answer or refuse calls and to use re-dialing. You can also use voice dialing when your mobile phone supports this. The easy-access volume adjusters allow you to adjust volume levels while you speak. Now you are always sure of the best possible sound quality. When combined with the Eminent bBlue the bTalk forms a great wireless headset for use with e.g. Skype. Now you can comfortably continue working while talking to your friends in the meantime.
